 This feature deletes the following kinds of Microsoft-authored files from your computer: Programs that notify you about upgrading to Windows 10, including the "Get Windows 10" app. Programs that collect information about your computer that Microsoft uses to determine whether your system can be upgraded to Windows 10. Programs that are known to change your system settings in ways that make you vulnerable to unwanted Windows 10 upgrades. This feature does not remove any third-party software. Because this operation deletes files it cannot be reversed . If you use this feature and decide in the
